THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1848.

BY O. F. JACKSON, ST-THAMES ST Manufactures will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Meraid, and greater than the combined cruciation of the Daily and Weekly Heraid. As one proof of this fact, the list of Leiters remaining in the Post-Office, is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAWREQUIRED.

03-The merriest Saint in the Calendar, the good and wise St. Valentine, smilled benigely upon us from the skies yesterday, infusing through the little world of humanity "associated" on our island, a glow of genial wacmth and the kindliest kind of sympathies. Blessed be his memory for this same dispensation, and for the promis of a fair sky to-day which he vouchsufed in his departing smile at sundown.

. The volumes of Saint Valentiae in this goodly town are counted by thousands ranging in age from three to fifty years, and we do know but some were older than this; and our stationers and post, offices can bear witness that they are worshipers of the de vautest order.

In the universal and unlimitable indulgence in the privilege of the anniversary, we wish all true votaris of the pitron Saint unmittigated pleasure and gratification unalloyed.

FROM THE FRONTIER .- A St. Louis correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette has the following particulars:

A messenger has arrived from Fort Maur with news from that place, dates to the 20th of January-ten days later than the advices received on Saturday.

It is said that the Mexicans and Camanche Indians are gathering in the South in great force, about 250 miles from Forl Bent and were preparing for an attack upon that

Col. Gilpin was making every prepara tion not to receive them, but to march against them and attack them in their rendezvous.

The meaus at Col. Gilpin's command were very limited, but he hoped to be able to march by the middle of February. The greatest difficulty was experienced at the fort in aboying the orders of Col. Gilpin.-His horses are all dead and af 800 cattle, only 70 now remain, and the wolves are daily lessening this number.

An attempt was made at Fort Mann to send stores to Col, Gilpin, but with little success. A detachment of troops, Lieut. O'Harra, which was ordered to escort a autler's train, deserted to a man. A court martial had been ordered, but the result had not been ascertained.

TURN Our.-Large numbers of those disaffected persons, as well women as men. who refused to work in the mills because of a reduction in their wages, have held frequent meetings, at which speeches were made and resolutions adopted, not of the most conciliating character. Througs o men and women have paraded the streets and gathered around the mills, with the open and avowed object of preventing those disposed to do it, from working in the mills. A great proportion of those who have taken part at these meetings are foreigners. Some of the supposed ringleaders have been apprehended, and are to be examined to-day. Three of the manufacturing establishments in this place have stopped entirely. Several are running part of their machinery only, and some o the mills are in full operation. Such is the distracted state of business at the precentume, that the owners of the manufactoring etaablishments would lose less by stopping their mills envirely, than by running them. But they are desirous of furnishing employment to their held at us high prices as their business will admit, with any degree of salety to themselves. Fall River Monitor of Saturday.

"An Owne Taue Tale !- On Friday last, a young man from an adjacent village came into New York city, and having transacted his husiness to his entire satisfaction was returning in the best of humor to, his lodgings, when he "stopped for a drink" at one of the low porter houses in the vicinity of Church and Duane streets. The old story of decoying was practiced upon him. and on awaking from his drunken stupor the next morning he found that he had been robbed of his pocket-book, money and papers, probably by the person with whom he had passed the night. Not knowing what course to pursue, he hastily left the place, and after advising with his landlord procured the assistance of a police officer and returned to the den of infamy. Admittance was at first refused but finally granted, and without explaining their object they both went immediately to the bed room where the young man had passed the night Upon the floor sat the debased woman, the packet-book heside her, sobbing and giving vent to grief in the most violent manner, while she held in her hand one or two letters directed to her brother! That meeting may be imagined, but not described. The girl, after much persuasion, was induced to return home with her brother, repented. and we hope changed. The name we omit at the request of the officer who communicates the fact, but it appeared in The Sun and all the city journals about three years ngo, when this same girl came to the city looking for emilloyment, and was seduced by a heardess rollian. So deeply did she then feel her shame that she adopted the course of life which we hope is now forever ended.- New York Sun.

DISASTER .- A letter, dated Louisville, 24th Feb., to the Cincinnatti Times, states that on the preceding day a steamboat accident happened in Omo River below Hains ville, caused by the Paul Jones running into the Major Barbour, sinking her to the hurricene deck. Boat and cargo a total loss. The writer learned several lives were jost by the accident, but had not yet ascertained how many, or the names of those who perished.

GUATEMALA AND LHE UNITED STATES. The N. O. Picayone of the 3d inst., contains an article of some interest in regard to the relation in which the States of Central America stand towards Mexico, which has been but imperfectly understood, and it was apprehended not long since that they might make a common cause with her against the aggressions of the United in 1831 and 1832, and is becoming weaker States. The President of Honduras, in in its attacks as it advances northwards .fact, expressed a strong hostility towards us in his proclamation, and an offer of aseistance was made by that State to Santa Anna as well as a call upon the other portions of the Confederacy, urging their co-operation. Guntemala, in whom the chief power is centered, has just answered to this application, and in a manner which leaves the position of the Central American Republic no longer doubtful. She disclaims any binding mutual relations with Mexico, farther than those of commerce and navigation, declares that she is bound by a treaty of permanent friendship to the United States, and avews her determination of remaining entirely neutral. The other States of the Confederation will be governed by this decision.

ROBBERY OF MRS. BENNETT.-Mrs. Bennett, lady of the editor of the N. Y. Herald, has been robbed of some $300, in Napoleans, which were taken by some onefrom a trunk in her private apartment. Mis. B.'s coachman was taken into temporary enstody on the charge. Nothing, however, could be found to implicate him, save that he had been seen in the sanctum on several occasions, which he explained, by stating that being a little bald, he was in sleepy stranger with the contribution box. the habit of using Mrs. Bennett's hair oil for his infirmity ! DECREE OF THE SULTAN.-The Right Honorable Lord Cowley, English Ambas-•ador at Contantinople, has procured a decree from the Sultan, securing religious liberty to Protestants.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY .- The origin of Thirtieth Congress --- First Session. St. Valentine's Day is a little uncertain, but the most rational account we have seen, and probably the most correct one, is given by an English author, (Mr. Douce,) who explains it as follows :-

"St. Valentine was a priest of Rome-it was the custom in that ancient city to celearate the Lupercalia, which were feasts in honor of Juno. On this occasion, unidet a variety of ceremonies, the names of young women were deposited in a vase, from which they were drawn by the men as chance directed. The pastors of the early Christian church, who, by every menns, endeavored to eradicate the vestiges of Pagan superstition, substituted in the present instance the names of particular Saints instead of those of the women, and as the festival of the Luperculia had commenced about the middle of Feburary, they chose St. Valentine's day for celebrating the new feast, and accordingly the outline of the ancient ceremony was preserved; it is therefore reasonable to suppose that the above practice of choosing mates would gradually become reciprocal in the sexes. It is also recorded that on St. Valentine's day each bird of the air chooses its mate."

Interesting to Bachelors.—A bill has been introduced into the Kentucky Legislature, levying a specific tax upon bachelto be devoted to the support of widows and orphans. A tax of this kind will hear rather heavily upon those poor fellows who do not get married for the very good reason that they can find bobody to have them.

A PALLING OFF.-There were shipped from New York for Europe during the first lour days of the present month, 1853 barrels of flour. Last year the amount shipped in the same time was 51,736 barrels. In corn there is a still greater falling off. The export of breadsmil's last year amounted to about $60,000,000. Unless the demand revives within two or three months, it will hardly reach a sixth of that amount the present year.

江戸From the annual report of the New York State Lunatic Asylum, it appears give an exception. that twenty-four of the female inwates of that institution became insane from the abuse of their husbands - sixteen from disappaintment in love-one from the excessive use of snuff-and one from a law suit.

Madness of the Season .-- The Cleveland Herald of the 31st., says that pavigation on Lake Erie is as practicable now as it was on the last day of July, and adds: We presume there is not a particle of ice from Buffalo to Detroit, unless it may be a trifle in Sandusky Bay, which is of no account. SENATE. - Feb 11. - among the petitions presented was one by Mr. Crittenden, from Hon. Richard M. Johnson, respecting lindian schools; after which, another was presented by Mr. Clapton, from Midshipman Rogers of Mexican fame.

Mr. Dayton, from the judiciary committee, reported a bill to carry into effect the foreign treaty relative to fugatives from justice.

Mr. Cass, from the military committee, reported without amendment the joint resolation from the Heuse, tendering thanks to Generals Taylor and Scott, and Mr. Crittenden moved its immediate passage. This gave rise to a warm debate, in which Mr. Hale declared himself opposed to thanking men for fighting in such an unjust war .-Mr. Butler said that he considered Mr. Hale's opinions novel and suicidal to our institutions.

Mr. Hale responded briefly, when the resolution was hild aside. The Senate then resumed the special order of the day, it being the Ten Regiment Bill. Mr. Turney, of Tennessee, delivered as peech in favor of the bill, when Mr. Breese obtained the floor, and the Senata adjourned till

There has been no medicine sold the best altera ive now in use. We have abundance of proof of that fact. There have been thousands of cases of impurities of the blood curred by this medicine. m3-One of the most important effects of the recent progress of Science is the alitance of Chemistry with Physiology. By which a new and unexpected light has been thrown upon the vital processes of animals. For this we are indebted chiefly to the Gorman and French chemists.— We have now a clear understanding of the different action of aliments, poisons, and remedial agents, and the long derided theory of the blood being the portion of the system upon which the latter should act, is now a demonstrated truth.— The great object, therefore, is to ascertain what remedy will act most directly upon the constituents of the blood when in the act of combination. existing a tribular tribular tribular and a cloud of witnesses, establish the fact that SAND'S SARSAPARIL.
